AOSTA VALLEE SKI SAFARI

Once in a lifetime

The Alps are the ultimate destination for luxury travel. The enchanting beauty of the Alpine arc, its picturesque villages, and breathtaking scenery give our “Unique Experience” collection the very best the Alps have to offer. A perfect blend of elegance, refinement, and natural splendor, each stay becomes a truly exceptional experience.

Winter Dream & Ski

An exceptional region, the Alps are a haven for both the active and the indulgent—a perfect setting to fully embrace the magic of winter. More than just a world-class ski destination, this majestic landscape invites you to experience an unforgettable alpine adventure.

Set your own pace, take off by helicopter to the summits, and follow our expert ski coaches as you carve through fresh powder—from the early morning glow to torchlit descents beneath the stars. As night falls, unwind by the fireplace and indulge in exquisite culinary experiences, all while dreaming of the wonders awaiting you the next day. Create lasting memories, immerse yourself in the rhythm of the region, and savor every moment of this alpine art de vivre.

A truly unique and ideal way to celebrate winter and the snow.

Your ski coach

Jean-Jacques Rey

A high-level Swiss skier, he was a member of the Swiss national alpine ski team from 1977 to 1987. He competed in World Cup races, earned several podium finishes in the European Cup for slalom, and achieved various international victories, marking an impressive amateur career.

In 2005, he founded Swiss-Discovery, a company specializing in tailor-made trips and event organization throughout the Alps. He later created Inspiring-Experience, which took over and expanded Swiss-Discovery's activities, extending its reach across the entire Alpine region.

Marc Garcia

A high-level French skier, he was a member of the French national alpine ski teams from 1976 to 1984. He competed on the World Cup circuit, achieved several podium finishes in the European Cup for slalom, and won around forty international races, marking a distinguished amateur career.

From 1985 to 1992, he continued as a professional skier in Japan, specializing in parallel slalom. Over nine seasons, he secured 45 victories.

In 1986, he was voted the most photogenic skier by the Japanese press, and in 1989, he won the World Pro Ski Finals held in Japan.

He concluded his professional career with eight world championship titles in demonstration skiing.
