Accommodation

Hotel Mont Blanc 4 stars Megève

Perfectly situated just a stone's throw from the church in the centre of the charming village of Megève, this hotel invites you to discover this traditional area where the marvellous French "art de vivre" is something of a way of life.

Occupying an imposing position in the very heart of one of the world's finest resorts, the Hotel Mont Blanc Megève never fails to delight its guests.

Guests can enjoy a tea in the afternoon which transforms into a champagne bar in the evening.

THE RELAIS restaurant is open for lunch and dinner and serves traditional meals.

What's more, the cable cars are situated right next to the hotel so you can set off with your skis already on, to have fun on the snowy slopes!

The Pure Altitude Spa offers an indoor pool and hot tub open to the sun, and its four treatment cabins that fit in perfectly with a pure world of ice and snow

Accommodation

Hotel Lodge Park 5 stars Megève

The new 5-star Lodge This winter, the Lodge Park gets a fifth star and a new, sensual, ultra-chic, enveloping decor.

The wild escape

Deep, dark hues, leather, wood, stone, hunting trophies and thick fabrics, this resolutely elegant boutique hotel summons the power of the elements and nature with radiance and luxury.

An address that's unmistakably its own, the Lodge Park has always made you want to shut yourself away. We've always found refuge here with a sense of privilege and pleasure, without any real sense of the passing days. Between its walls, adorned with exquisitely woven fabrics and topped with deer and other game, you feel like you're somewhere else. A wildly beautiful, unexplored elsewhere that conjures up images of a chic snow safari for gentlemen.

The lounges, which feature a large fireplace adorned with large frosted river pebbles, a majestic wooden trophy set, welcome you at all hours of the day in their patinated leather and soft Chesterfield clubs. A lively place, where you can also enjoy a delicious brunch - boiled eggs, ham croissants - as well as divine hot chocolates, accompanied, guilt-free, by a farandole of homemade pastries.

Your ski coach

Jean-Jacques Rey

A high-level Swiss skier, he was a member of the Swiss national alpine ski team from 1977 to 1987. He competed in World Cup races, earned several podium finishes in the European Cup for slalom, and achieved various international victories, marking an impressive amateur career.

In 2005, he founded Swiss-Discovery, a company specializing in tailor-made trips and event organization throughout the Alps. He later created Inspiring-Experience, which took over and expanded Swiss-Discovery's activities, extending its reach across the entire Alpine region.

Marc Garcia

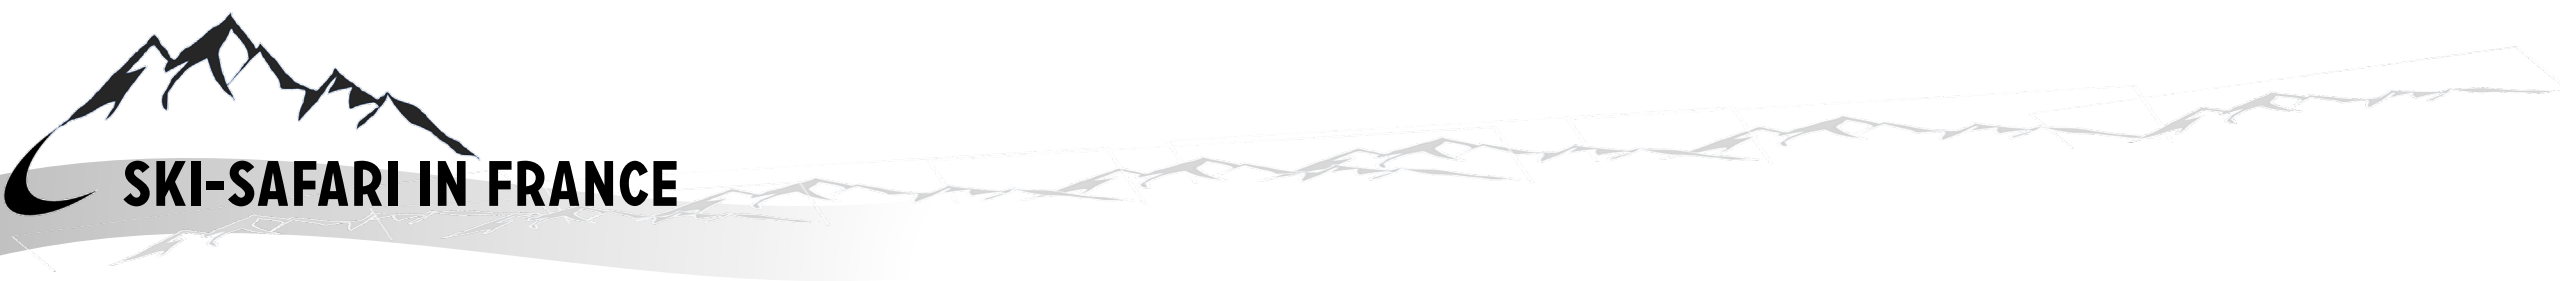

A high-level French skier, he was a member of the French national alpine ski teams from 1976 to 1984. He competed on the World Cup circuit, achieved several podium finishes in the European Cup for slalom, and won around forty international races, marking a distinguished amateur career.

From 1985 to 1992, he continued as a professional skier in Japan, specializing in parallel slalom. Over nine seasons, he secured 45 victories.

In 1986, he was voted the most photogenic skier by the Japanese press, and in 1989, he won the World Pro Ski Finals held in Japan.

He concluded his professional career with eight world championship titles in demonstration skiing.
